

- Explains Financial Aid and FAFSA process for both the student and parent – how it works, what you need, how to create an account and apply
- Covers grants, scholarships, work-study, loans, and exchange programs
- Presented to students/families virtually (live or can record), or in-person depending on location
- Recommended before actual FAFSA completion pathways (below)
- School/organization must be present for oversight
- Request via email or by calling 800-441-2962 opt#4

FINANCIAL AID

PLANNING GUIDE

Alaska
Commission on Postsecondary
Education

One-on-One Assistance

FAFSA Time Alaska

- FAFSA Line-by-Line Demonstration
- Presented to students/families via Zoom
- School/organization must be present for oversight
- Request via email
- If additional assistance needed, students/families encouraged to join FAFSA Wednesdays, or to make an appointment with the ACPE Success Center Staff

FAFSA Wednesdays

- For individuals/students/families
- One-on-one FAFSA completion assistance
- Breakout rooms used if more than one individual at the same time to maintain privacy
- Weekly between 3pm and 6pm via Zoom
- Registration not required, join any time

ACPE Success Center

- For individuals/students/families who are unable to attend FAFSA Wednesdays
- One-on-one FAFSA completion assistance (virtual or in-person)
- Appointment required via youcanbook.me or by calling 800-441-2962 opt#4
- In-person FAFSA completion assistance at ACPE's Dimond Center location by appointment only

acpe.alaska.gov/AlaskaFAFSACompletion